

A Fresh Look Backwards

Scholarly Forgetting in the History of Scholarship

Helmstedt (Germany), 19–21 April 2018

Thursday, 19 April

17:00 Introduction and welcome

General introduction (Han Lamers)

Helmstedt as a forgotten hub of knowledge (Toon Van Hal)

17:30 Guided tour through the Juleum

18:30 Gerda Hassler (University of Potsdam)

The Functional-Communicative Approach to Language of the Potsdam School: The Genesis and Demise of a Paradigm

19:15 Dinner

Friday, 20 April

09:30 Lorenz Demey and Hans Smessaert (University of Leuven)

Aristotelian Diagrams: The Forgotten Icons of Logic

10:15 Cornelis J. Schilt (University of Oxford)

Created in Our Image: How Isaac Newton was Fashioned as a Scientist and Forgotten as a Scholar

11:00 Break

11:30 Asaph Ben-Tov (University of Erfurt)

Johann Ernst Gerhard (1621–1668), a Forgotten Orientalist, Or: A Study in Instructive Oblivion

12:15 Christine Amadou (University of Oslo)

Western scholars and Greek Nationalists in Interplay: Classicism as a Way of Forgetting Ottoman History

13:00 Lunch

14:30 Kristina Jõekalda (Estonian Academy of Arts, Tallinn)

Forgotten and Rediscovered Monuments on the Edge of Europe: Some Insights into Baltic German Art Historiography of the Long 19th Century

15:15 Arnulf Mattes (University of Bergen)

Reviving National Heritage: Edvard Grieg in Norwegian Music Historiography/Public History

16:00 Break

16:20 Toon Van Hal (University of Leuven)

The Fate of Early Modern Descriptions of Exotic Languages: A Forgotten Body of Sources?

17:30 Guided tour through Helmstedt

19:00 Dinner

Saturday, 21 April

09:30 Han Lamers (University of Oslo)

“Nachleben der Antike”: A Forgotten Chapter in the Study of the Classical Tradition

10:15 General discussion

11:00 Farewell