

MENTAL DISEASES IN ANCIENT MEDICINE

Workshop

(Humboldt Universität zu Berlin, 6-8 October 2014)

Participants and Provisional topics

1. Marke Ahonen (University of Helsinki). tbd.
2. Sean Coughlin/Orly Lewis (Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin, Topoi Excellence Cluster). tbd.
3. Julien Devinant (Ancient philosophy; Université Paris-Sorbonne/Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin). ‘Psychic affections and psychological suffering in Galen’s cases’.
4. Sarah Francis (Classics/Ancient medicine; London). ‘Mental disorder and disability in ancient medicine and culture’.
5. Ricarda Gäbel (Classics/Ancient medicine; Humboldt Universität zu Berlin) ‘The presentation of mental diseases within book six of Aetius of Amida’s Libri medicinales’.
6. Chris Gill (Classics/Ancient philosophy; University of Exeter). ‘Philosophical psychological therapy - did it have any impact on medical practice?’
7. Ricardo Julião (Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin). tbd.
8. Christian Laes (Ancient History and Latin; University of Antwerp and Free University of Brussels). ‘Writing the Socio-Cultural History of Fatness and Leanness in the Ancient World?’
9. Peter Singer (Classics/Ancient medicine; University of Newcastle) ‘Galen on the Treatment of Mental Disturbance’.
10. Chiara Thumiger (Classics/Ancient medicine; Humboldt Universität zu Berlin). ‘Food and mental disorder’.
11. Philip van der Eijk (Classics/History of Science; Humboldt Universität zu Berlin), Chiara Thumiger (Classics/Ancient medicine; Humboldt Universität zu Berlin). ‘Sex, sexuality, gender identity and mental disorder’.
12. Heinrich von Staden (Classics/History of Science; Institute for Advanced Studies, Princeton). ‘The sources of Celsus’ psychology and taxonomy of insania’.