

MENTAL DISEASE IN ANCIENT MEDICINE

SPEAKERS AND TOPICS

1. Julien Devinant (Ancient philosophy; Université Paris-Sorbonne/Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin), Psychic affections and psychological suffering in Galen's cases
2. Sarah Francis (Classics/Ancient medicine; London). Mental disorder and disability in ancient medicine and culture
3. William Harris (History; Columbia University). Mental disorders in Aretaeus of Cappadocia
4. Maithe Hulskamp (Ancient medicine; University of Amsterdam), Sleep and sleep related conditions
5. Ricarda Gäbel (Classics/Ancient medicine; Humboldt Universität zu Berlin) From mental sign to mental disease. The case of headache in Aetius of Amida and earlier sources.
6. Chris Gill (Classics/Ancient philosophy; University of Exeter). The boundaries of philosophical and medical approaches to mental illness and therapy.
7. Christian Laes (Ancient History and Latin; University of Antwerp and Free University of Brussels). Chronique anachronique revisited. Lichneia and gastrimargia as instances of bulimia?
8. Silvia Matentzoglu (Psychiatry/Ancient medicine; Berlin), Modern psychiatric diseases and the historian of ancient medicine
9. Peter Singer (Classics/Ancient medicine; University of Newcastle) Galen's approaches to mental disturbance
10. Chiara Thumiger (Classics/Ancient medicine; Humboldt Universität zu Berlin), Food and mental disorder
11. Philip van der Eijk (Classics/History of Science; Humboldt Universität zu Berlin), Chiara Thumiger (Classics/Ancient medicine; Humboldt Universität zu Berlin), Sex, sexuality, gender identity and mental disorder.
12. Heinrich Von Staden (Classics/History of Science; Institute for Advanced Studies, Princeton), The sources of Celsus' psychology and taxonomy of insania